Date: June 11, 2007

---

Introduction

The Office of Juvenile System Oversight (OJSO) conducted a routine, unannounced visit to the Enid Adventure Program on May 10, 2007. The Office of Juvenile Affairs (OJA) contracts with Southwestern Oklahoma State University for the operation of the program, which serves OJA-custody males. The purpose of the visit was to assess compliance with established responsibilities. The program was licensed for twelve residents by the Division of Child Care of the Department of Human Services (DHS). On the day of the visit, the census was twelve.

Interviews Conducted

- Entry interview and an exit conference with the Program Administrator
- Four residents
- Two direct care staff members

Documentation Reviewed

- Case records on four residents
- Personnel files of two staff members
- DHS Division of Child Care inspection report, dated March 15, 2007
- Office of the Oklahoma State Fire Marshal inspection report, dated February 15, 2007
- Oklahoma State Department of Health inspection report, dated February 12, 2007

Findings

The OJSO interviewed four residents and two direct care staff members and reviewed the case records on four residents and the personnel files of two staff members. No concerns were noted from the interviews and file reviews.

The OJSO reviewed the most recent inspection reports by the DHS Division of Child Care, the Office of the Oklahoma State Fire Marshal, and the Oklahoma State Department of Health. There were no violations cited in the reports.

Summary

On the day of the OJSO visit, the facility appeared to be meeting the needs of the residents. The residents are afforded many opportunities for outdoor activities and recreation.
