- Two direct care staff
- Four residents

Materials Reviewed

- Most recent inspection reports from the Office of the Oklahoma State Fire Marshal, the Oklahoma State Department of Health, and the DHS Division of Child Care
- Three personnel files
- Files on four residents

Areas Toured

- Entire facility

Overview

Interviews

The four residents interviewed were asked questions pertaining to facility standards, program services, and quality of life. The OJSO noted the following from the resident interviews:

- The residents responded favorably to the interview questions pertaining to safety, participation in recreation, community activities, and benefiting from the program.
- The residents responded favorably regarding the staff.
- The residents reported only appropriate consequences for resident rule violations.

The two direct care staff members interviewed reported having the required training certifications. They also reported imposing only acceptable consequences for resident rule violations.

File Reviews

The OJSO reviewed the files on four residents. The files were well-organized, and the materials were easy to locate. There were no concerns noted during the review of the resident files.

The OJSO reviewed three personnel files. The files were well-organized and contained the required documentation. There were no concerns noted during the review of the personnel files.

Inspection Tour

The OJSO conducted a tour of the facility. The physical plant was clean on the day of the visit, and the OJSO noted that several areas of the facility had been recently remodeled. There were no concerns noted during the tour of the facility.

Summary

The documentation was in good order and there were no concerns noted. The program offered recreational opportunities to the residents that they might not otherwise be able to access, including field trips, ROPES course exercises, and camping. During the exit conference, the Program Administrator advised that the facility would be moving to a new facility in Nash, Oklahoma, in the near future.
